GENERAL AVIATION AWARDS PROGRAM

The General Aviation Awards Program is a cooperative effort between the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and aviation industry sponsors to recognize annually outstanding individuals in the fields of Avionics, Flight Instruction, and Maintenance. In addition, the program recognizes outstanding individuals serving the FAA Safety Team (FAASTeam) as representatives. The awards highlight the important roles these individuals play in promoting aviation safety, education, and professionalism. Winners will be recognized locally, regionally and nationally. National winners will be recognized during AirVenture-Oshkosh each July. There, they will also receive gifts and merchandise provided by sponsors and contributors.

ELIGIBILITY

All candidates must have been actively working within their respective aviation fields for a minimum of five (5) years prior to application / nomination. Candidates must also hold valid FAA airman certificates appropriate to their respective fields if required. In addition:

- A) Aviation Maintenance Technician candidates must be actively working within the United States under FAR Part 65;
- B) Avionics Technician candidates must be actively working within the United States with an FAA certified Part 145 Repair Station;
- C) Certificated Flight Instructor candidates must be actively working within the United States under FAR Part 61, Part 141 or Part 142;
- D) FAASTeam Representative candidates must be actively involved in the FAA Safety Team. Prior time in the National Safety Program applies to the 5-year requirement.

Candidates will be judged based on sustained superior performance in their respective fields as well as specific accomplishments and contributions to aviation safety, education, and professionalism.

APPLICATION / NOMINATION PACKAGE

The application / nomination package should include only the required components listed below. Any additional information will be disregarded. Missing required components may lead to disqualification.
